

SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 8 PRESENTS...

Supporting Struggling Learners with Leyton Schnellert

A Staff Development Opportunity

Please Note...

The four session structure is designed to deepen and extend professional learning and promote collaboration. As a result, a commitment to attending all four sessions is requested.

For further information about the session please contact:

Kristi Crowe

Winlaw Elementary

226.7217 / kcrowe@sd8.bc.ca

Learning Intentions:

- To encourage the building and sharing of knowledge related to literacy learning in the 7-12 classroom.
- To explore ways of supporting literacy development across the curriculum.

Structure: Session 1: Oct. 16th, Leyton Schnellert (all day)
Session 2: Jan. 16th, Study Group (4-6 with dinner)
Session 3: March 1 & 2, Leyton Schnellert (all day)
Session 4: April 16th, Study Group (4-6 with dinner)

Audience: 7-12 Teachers

Cost: The district will cover the TOC for 2 Grade 7-12 teachers per school for both the Oct. 16th and March 1st & 2nd sessions. TOC costs for additional teachers will be the responsibility of the school.

TOC Code 102-14380-424

Logistics: All sessions will be held at the Board Office. The all day sessions will run from 8.45-3. There will be an option of video-conferencing with Creston for the 4-6 sessions.

Please send registration to Carol Brown by fax (352.6686) or email (cbrown@sd8.bc.ca) by Oct. 3rd.

Name _____

Grade(s) _____ Subject(s) _____

School _____